1 Q. Yes.
2 A. No. Who would have notified me how much had to
3 come from each hospital, I would have gotten
4 that from Dan. Who made the decision as to
5 where, when, why and how, I don't know.
6 Q. Did you ever speak to anybody from Coopers &
7 Lybrand about these additional reserve
8 transfers?
9 A. Not that I recall.
10 Q. Did you ever discuss with Mr. Cancelmi whether 11 he had spoken to Coopers & Lybrand about the 12 additional reserve transfers?
13 A. I don't recall.
14 Q. Did you ever speak to Ms. Schaffer about
15 whether she spoke to Coopers & Lybrand about 16 the additional reserve transfers?
17 A. I don't remember. 18 Q. Have you ever heard of anybody at AHERF
19 speaking to Coopers & Lybrand about the reserve
20 transfers beyond the $50 million?
21 A. Specifically, no.
22 Q. Even generally?
23 A. I would have seen a memo on it. I don't know
24 if that memo went to them, but in an audit of 25 the intercompany activity, not just that they

6 or if they performed that audit of the
7 intercompany transactions versus just looking
8 to make sure everything balanced out and they
9 were fine.
10 Q. So just to be clear, you never heard anybody at
11 AHERF claim that they told Coopers & Lybrand
12 about reserve transfers beyond the $50 million?
13 A. I don't remember.
14 MR. JONES: Object to form.

When you say make an entry into the analysis of reserves — I mean do you recall who decided to include a row in the X file schedule that referred to the Lockhart funds? I would get anything relative to the analysis of reserves. I would take what was in there from the prior time we did it, print it out, update the pieces that I knew, talked to people that I knew I had gotten pieces from before. I would given it to Dan, who was my boss. Dan would then give it back with pencil changes, if he wanted to add new lines in, add new numbers or change numbers based on something that he knew speaking with someone else. So it wasn't an entry that would go — but who would have determined to put it in there? Dan would have told me to put it in there. Who would have told him to? I do not know that. It looks like one of my schedules, yes. The third column here is headed Without Cushion Net Income/(Loss) Year to Date; right? Yes. What did you understand the term cushion to mean at the time? The term cushion? Yes. Cushion would be reserve excess, not necessary. Now, $84,959,000 of these adjustments are indicated as having taken place at DVOG; right? Correct. And an additional $17,400,000 took place at former Graduate Health System hospitals for which you had accounting responsibility; right? What was that last part again?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	A. Q. Q. A. Q. Q. A. Q. Q. Q. A. Q. Q. Q. A. Q.	Yes. Okay. Yes, I see that. If you look back at Exhibit 19, which was the schedule of the trusts, do you see that same $5.4 million amount in the Contribution column? Yes. Do you see the same $70.7 million amount in a row that reads Sub Total towards the bottom

The name sounds familiar, but I guess I would say he was somewhere in legal counsel. Yes, I think so. I don't know that I ever met him. The name sounds familiar. Did you ever in the course of your duties at AHERF have occasion to consult with members of the AHERF legal department? Myself specifically, not that I recall. Do you know whether Mr. Adamczak or Mr. Spargo did? I would have to say almost definitely Mr. Spargo did. Mr. Adamczak, it would be a guess, but probably on a sporadic basis. Did you know people who worked in the AHERF legal department?	6 7 8 9 100 111 122 133 144 155 166 177 188 199 201 221 222	Q. A. Q.	Yes. I guess 116 and 117 when we adopted it, there was some questions as to how we were going to record it or what we were going to do as we went through. Do you see the next sentence reads, At the time SFAS 117 was adopted, which was at the beginning of fiscal year '96 or 7-1-95, a determination was made to classify the majority of trusts as temporarily restricted ($70.7 million) and a portion as permanently restricted ($5.4 million)? Okay. Yes, I see that. If you look back at Exhibit 19, which was the schedule of the trusts, do you see that same $5.4 million amount in the Contribution column? Yes. Do you see the same $70.7 million amount in a row that reads Sub Total towards the bottom of the page?
